Celebrate Your Rising Star

The CUNA Marketing & Business Development Council's Rising Star Award recognizes and honors an individual with 2 or less years of paid, full time experience in the credit union industry. The winner of this prestigious award will be an emerging marketing or business development professional whose work demonstrates ongoing and exceptional growth. Their contribution to the future of the credit union industry is evident even in the short time they've been a part of the movement.

The Selection Process

A volunteer panel of judges, who are selected through an application process and are peers, industry professionals and past winners, will review and score the Rising Star entries. Selection will be based upon the candidates' mastery of and contributions to:

- CUNA Marketing & Business Development Council member involvement
- Contributions to their credit union
- Contribution to major project described
- Contribution potential to the future of the credit union industry

Winner Recognition

The winner will be announced at the CUNA Marketing & Business Development Council Annual Conference, held March 20-23, 2019 in Las Vegas. The winner should plan to attend the conference and will receive the following:

- A prestigious commemorative award
- A profile in Credit Union Magazine
- Recognition throughout the credit union industry
- Complimentary registration to the conference
- The opportunity to help select the following year's recipient and present the award
